Conditional Acceptance of CP23 Notice — Tax Year 2024

Taxpayer: Isiah Tarik Howard | SSN: XXX-XX-4060

Notice Date: March 31, 2025 | IRS Assessed Balance: $74,280.00

Dear IRS Commissioner and Authorized Officer,

I. Notice of Receipt and Timely Response

I, Isiah Tarik Howard, a natural person and Taxpayer of record, hereby acknowledge receipt of the CP23 Notice dated March 31, 2025, issued by the Internal Revenue Service regarding my 2024 federal income tax account. This response is submitted on or before June 30, 2026, and constitutes a timely reply within the applicable response window.

This letter is not a denial of the CP23 notice. It is a Conditional Acceptance of the IRS's claim, conditioned upon the IRS's production of verified documentation establishing the lawful basis for each element of the assessed deficiency, as set forth in Section III below.

II. Nature of the Dispute

The CP23 Notice asserts a tax deficiency of $74,280.00 for tax year 2024, arising from an alleged discrepancy in estimated tax payments. Specifically:

1. My 2024 Form 1040, as filed on or about February 5, 2025, reported $250,000.00 in estimated tax payments applied against the tax liability of $74,280.00, resulting in a claimed refund of $175,720.00.
2. The IRS has credited $0.00 in estimated tax payments to my 2024 account, thereby reversing the claimed refund and assessing a balance due of $74,280.00.

3. My review of the 2024 Record of Account transcript reflects a Code 810 — Refund Freeze applied on January 21, 2025, prior to the IRS's receipt of my 2024 return on February 5, 2025, and a Code 960 — Appointed Representative dated June 10, 2024.

The origin and basis of these transcript entries, and the disposition of the $250,000.00 in payments claimed on my return, remain under active investigation. I am in the process of gathering records from all relevant financial institutions and accounts to determine whether these payments were made, credited, misapplied, or the subject of a processing error.

III. Conditions of Acceptance

Pursuant to my right to dispute an IRS assessment and request verification of any alleged tax liability, I hereby conditionally accept the CP23 Notice, subject to the IRS's full and verified response to each of the following conditions. My acceptance of any obligation arising from the CP23 Notice is expressly conditioned upon the IRS satisfying all conditions listed below:

REQUIRED VERIFICATION ITEMS

ITEM	REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION
C-001	Payment Verification: Provide a complete payment history for Tax Year 2024, including all Transaction Codes reflecting any estimated tax payments received, applied, reversed, transferred, or held in suspense, with corresponding dates, amounts, and source account information.
C-002	Code 810 Basis: Provide the statutory and administrative basis for the Code 810 — Refund Freeze applied to my 2024 account on January 21, 2025, including any examination notice, identity verification letter (LTR 5071C, 4883C, or CP05), or other triggering document issued in connection with this freeze. Note: This freeze was applied prior to receipt of my 2024 return.
C-003	Code 960 Identity: Provide the identity, authorization form, and scope of authority for the representative appointed under Code 960 — Appointed Representative as of June 10, 2024, including the name of the representative, the applicable Form 2848 or power of attorney, and whether said authorization remained active as of the return filing date of February 5, 2025.
C-004	Full Account Transcript: Provide a complete IMFOL transcript for Tax Year 2024 reflecting all Transaction Codes, action codes, dates, dollar amounts, and responsible unit codes, from account opening through the date of this response.
C-005	Computation of Assessed Balance: Provide a line-by-line computation of the assessed balance of $74,280.00, including the statutory basis for any penalties and interest, and confirming that no credit or payment has been received or applied that would reduce this balance.

Until these conditions are met, this Conditional Acceptance shall not be construed as an admission of liability, a waiver of any right to dispute, or an acknowledgment that the assessed balance is accurate, correct, or lawfully imposed.

IV. Request to Suspend Enforcement Pending Investigation

In light of the unresolved questions regarding the origin of the Code 810 freeze, the identity and authority of the Code 960 representative, and the disposition of the estimated tax payments claimed on my return, I respectfully request that the IRS:

1. Place my account in Currently Not Collectible (CNC) status, or suspend enforcement action, pending review of this response and the production of the requested documentation;
2. Suspend the accrual of penalties and interest during the period of this investigation, or alternatively, abate any penalties under Internal Revenue Code § 6651(a) on grounds of reasonable cause; and
3. Provide a written response to this Conditional Acceptance within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt, confirming the IRS's position on each condition set forth in Section III.

If the IRS requires additional time to respond, I request written notice of the extended timeframe. I am committed to resolving this matter through proper administrative channels and will cooperate fully once the requested documentation has been produced.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

All rights are expressly reserved. Nothing in this letter shall be construed as an admission of any tax liability, as a waiver of any legal, equitable, or administrative right, or as consent to any collection action. This response is made under protest and subject to correction upon receipt of the documentation requested herein. The undersigned retains the right to amend, supplement, or withdraw this Conditional Acceptance upon review of the IRS's verified response. UCC 1-308 / All Rights Reserved.

Respectfully submitted,

Isiah Tarik Howard
